Annual Easter Egg Hunt: The Richmond Lions Club invites you to attend the annual Easter Egg Hunt at the City Park on Saturday, April 11, 2009. This event is for children age 12 years and younger. There will be separate areas for different age groups, so all will have opportunity to find what the Easter Bunny left earlier that morning. The members of the Lions Club will direct you to the age-appropriate areas. The event begins promptly at 9 a.m. Please come early and dress appropriately for that mornings weather.

An Invitation to Attend Time Together Workshops: Park School is sponsoring a series of workshops for parents to help children succeed in school. Parents of children who are four and will be turning 5 before September 1, 2009 are invited to attend the final workshop on April 2. Door prizes and take-home materials will be provided. Day care is available for parents attending. All workshops will be held in the Park School Media Center and will begin at 7 p.m. Please call Park Elementary (258-2344) for any questions. Special thanks to our sponsors: Presto Products, Pepperidge Arm, and Cache Valley Counter Tops.

Richmond Website: The Richmond City website, www.richmond-utah.com, features a page called "Links." It provides links to a number of websites that may be of interest to citizens. One section is dedicated to businesses here in Richmond. If your business has a website and you would like us to provide a link to it, please contact Terrie at 258-3777, or terrie@richmond-utah.com with the information.

Farmers' Market: Richmond City will expand and move its farmers' market to Rockhill

Creamery this summer. The Harvest Market at Rockhill will give residents the opportunity to sell—and buy—fresh produce, homemade crafts and prepared food items each Saturday at the historic Rockhill farm, 563 South State. Details and application forms will be available soon on the Richmond City website, www.richmond-utah.com. But in the meantime, if you've begun planting your tomato and pepper seeds, why not plant a few extra and come share the bounty this summer. The weekly market will be held from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. each Saturday from May 23rd to October 17th. Vendor applications on due by April 27th. For more information, call Terrie Wierenga (258-3777) or Pete Schropp (258-1278.)

Utah Foster Care Foundation: With 2,600 children in foster care, there is an increasing need for foster/adoptive parents. You have the power to change a child's world for the better, and offer love and support that will stay with them their entire lives. When you become a foster/adoptive parent you can give children a safe home, as well as giving mothers and fathers time to work things out. Professional trainers offer free preparation classes and support groups for prospective foster/adoptive families. Strengthen a Family: Become a Foster/Adoptive Parent. For more information, please call a recruiter at 1-877-392-1114, e-mail us at dan.webster@utahfostercare.org, or visit us at www.utahfostercare.org.

Library News and Views: "Free library services help you connect with your world."
2009 National Library Week Theme

A big Thanks to Mollyanne Hopkins for her excellent library lecture presentation on family reunions. The information was very helpful and entertaining. If you missed the opportunity and would like to get some helpful tips, a April's library lecture will be Basic Gardening on Friday, April 17th at 7:00 PM. Suzanne, from Anderson's Seed and Garden, will present some very informative tips for gardening - vegetable or otherwise. With the economy change, those of you who would like to raise a good, productive vegetable garden may find this a great help in being successful with less stress.

Make note - National Library Week is April 19-25, and the library is offering all patrons an Amnesty Week. Any overdue materials brought in during National Library Week will have fines dismissed that are attached to those materials. This will be a great time to save - in more ways than one. We will also be having a huge book sale: Buy one - get one free! There will be board games, puzzles, card games and contests to make it a fun week at your library. Come in for a great time.

Black and White Days is coming! The library is sponsoring a Poster Contest and all ages are invited to participate. Create an advertisement for this unique occasion, put your name, phone #, and age on the back, and bring entries to the library by May 9th. Last year's art contest was an outstanding success, and we encourage you to have as much fun with this year's contest.

New video limit: the checkout limit has been increased to 5 (instead of 3) videos per library card.
