Happy 100th Birthday to the Richmond Public Library!!

"Knowledge is free at the library – just bring your own container." —PCF

Thanks to Katie Anderson, Trisha Haws, and Sandy DeGasser for the very fun and informative photography presentation at the September Library Lecture. Pictures tell many stories and hold even more memories and the tips they shared were very valuable in making and preserving memories. Thanks ladies!

October Library Presentation: This is our BIG 100 Year Celebration month and our presenter will be Dr. Susan Swetnam, author of "Books, Bluster, and Bounty" (with Richmond Library pictured on the front cover). Dr. Susan Swetnam recently retired after a 35 year career teaching English at ISU, during which she became the only faculty member in university history to win all three of ISU's distinguished faculty awards: for teaching, public service, and research. She became interested in questions of local support for Carnegie libraries during her stint as Chair of the Idaho Humanities Council's Board of Directors in the 1980s, beginning the two decades of research and travel across the Intermountain West that led to "Books, Bluster, and Bounty." This long process paid rich dividends when the book won the Idaho Library Association's Idaho Book of the Year 2012 award. Susan is also the author of six other books and many scholarly and popular articles and creative nonfiction essays and narratives; her work has appeared in a variety of national magazines including "Gourmet" and "Mademoiselle." Check our website (richmondlibrary.us) for more information about this book and Dr. Swetnam.

The Carnegie presentation will be Thursday, October 23rd, at 7:00 PM, in the library basement. Refreshments will be served.

"Double Jubilee Week" (Oct. 13-18) If you come in, during that week, and ask a librarian what "Double Jubilee Week" means for you, you may be pleasantly surprised and very glad that you asked.

Birthday Cake Day is Tuesday, Oct. 14th, 2014. Stop by to celebrate the good "old" traditional way – with cake and good company. You are always in good company when you are amongst old and dear friends (we're actually talking about books, not necessarily the librarians - they are very young compared to the library, right?) ☺

Congratulations to our September 100 Year-Old Celebration winners! The winners for "the week of the 14th" drawings were: Eliza Tonnie & Trinity McMillan (Big J's shake); Orrin White (Subway gift card); and Samantha Hall (the guessing jar of treats). Those who won "free books" at the end of the Aug. were Jane Huff, Alejandra Rivera, Alexi Averett, and Wyatt Godfrey. Each month of our BIG 100 Year-Old Celebration there will be a drawing for a free book in 4 separate age groups: preschool, children, teens, and adults – BUT during the month of October the free book drawings will happen weekly – HOORAY! During the week of the 14th daily drawings for gift cards will take place, along with our usual week of the 14th drawings for treats and prizes .

If you would like to volunteer to help decorate, had out water, direct runners, or even hand out medals, please contact the race director with your information and shirt size (all ages welcome).

Mark Your Calendar

Winter parking restrictions go into effect on November 1st and continue through March 15th. No parking on the street or City right-of-way is permitted between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m. during those months. This is for the protection of your property and the safety of our snow plow drivers. Also, parents, please take time to instruct your children that playing on and behind the plowed snow berms can be dangerous and even fatal. The plow drivers have extremely limited vision when “pushing snow.” We will also appreciate it very much if you will remove empty garbage and recycle cans just as soon as possible on Fridays. If you are interested, the entire ordinance (Section 11-345, Title 11-000) can be read on your City website.

And remember—ordinance prohibits the placement on the parkstrips of abandoned, non-functioning or unregistered vehicles, trailers, equipment or any other personal property for any use other than for overnight or temporary parking (less than 30 days).

Those residents that are currently using city property in a manner inconsistent with the ordinance may be contacted by the city for removal of the items in question. The city, at its option, may remove the items without notice if the owner does not respond to the city's request within a reasonable period of time.

Please also be aware that the city assumes no liability for damage to personal property that occurs when it is placed in the city right-of-way (i.e. from snow plows). Contact Councilmember Paul Erickson if you have questions.

Stepfamily Class

The Child & Family Support Center will hold a Stepfamily Class for parents and children in stepfamilies on Wednesday nights from Oct 15-Nov 19 from 5:45-8:00pm. Call 752-8880 for more information.
