Black & White Days May 15-20, 2017

2017 Black & White Royalty

The annual Black & White Days Royalty Pageant was held April 15th and was such a great evening.

The girls who applied were incredible examples of leadership, dignity, bravery, talent, charity, and they all shared a love and loyalty to our beautiful City of Richmond.

After an evening of dinner, discussion, and the sharing of talents, the new Royalty was crowned.

Jenny Carver was selected as the Queen and her attendants are Abby Palmer and Jayden Christensen.

A big thank you goes out to our 2016 Royalty, Krystal Jensen, Emma Thacker, and Tiffany Robison. They did an excellent job at representing Richmond over the last year.

Thank you also to all those who attended the dinner this year and helped with the judging.

A special thank you goes out to Rhonda Davis and Sandy DeGasser. Without them donating countless hours of their time, this pageant would not be possible.

Little Miss Pageant - May 13

The Little Miss Pageant (for current second graders) is scheduled for May 13th @ 6:00 pm in the Richmond Theater (City Building) and the public is invited to attend. There will be a talent portion that evening, followed by crowning. All who participate will receive a special award as well as be crowned our Richmond Little Miss Royalty. Everyone is encouraged to come support our Richmond youth at this event.

The newly crowned girls are invited to show their love of Richmond by riding on our city float with our Black and White Days Royalty in the Black and White Days parade and any other parades our Royalty will be participating in,

Parents of second graders, please watch your daughters school folders for more specific information about the event as well as an entry form.

Check the website (www.richmond-utah.com/bwdays) for more information on all things Black & White Days!

City-wide Cleanup May 6th

The annual citywide cleanup will be held on Saturday, May 6th. A special focus will be placed on the following areas: Main Street, State Street and the city parks. The event will start at 9:00 A.M. and last for a couple of hours.

To receive your location to serve, please come to the Black & White Days pavilion area at 50 South State Street at 8:45 A.M.

Hamburgers and hot dogs will be served at the conclusion of the event. Thank you for your willingness to help clean up the city.

Behind the Uniform

Richmond Fire & Rescue Department

Getting to know the people behind the uniform: the Richmond Fire Department would like to present Chief Troy Hooley.

Chief Hooley grew up in Providence. He moved his family to Richmond eight years ago. He is married to Krista and they have five children. He is employed full-time by the Logan City Fire Department, where he has worked for 25 years. He joined the Richmond Fire Department two months ago. Just a few weeks ago, he was asked to be our chief and graciously accepted the challenge. Some of his hobbies include woodworking, metal work, and skiing.

Upcoming May Activities:

Come visit us at our booth during Black & White Days. We have some great items to be raffled off and some activities planned. We will also be selling t-shirts.

We will also have a safety fair on Friday May 26th starting at 3:25 p.m. with a bike rodeo at Park School. There will be booths and more raffle items at the pavilion west of the tennis courts from 3:25 until complete. Watch for flyers with more information.

Safety Tip of the Month:

With the large amount of snow pack and moisture we have received, PLEASE keep our children and pets safe. If you are playing close to the water, make sure your children are with an adult and have a life jacket.
